2027 Official FAQs

How do I register for a Driven Talent Competition event?

First, click "Register" and sign up for an account. Once you are verified, log in. Upon logging in, you will be directed to your dashboard. From there, click the "Start a New Registration" tab.

How do I make a change to my registration once the schedule is locked?

If there is a change that needs to be made please note all changes MUST be submitted in writing. Please email registration@driventalentcompetition.com with your studio, the event you are attending, and a detailed description of the exact change.

Are Independent Entries accepted?

Yes, we accept independent entries based on availability. Please select "Independent Account" when setting up your account if you are registering for a new event.

How do I upload the music for my routines?

When you log in, you will be directed to your dashboard. Assuming you have already input all your routines, click "Routines," scroll to the bottom of the page, and click "Media Manager." Next to the given routine, click the musical note icon, and from there you can upload your file. Please ensure the file name matches the routine name in your system. Once your file is successfully uploaded, you will see a green play symbol.

When will I receive the detailed schedule and overview for the event?

You will receive an email with a detailed schedule 10–14 days prior to the first day of the event. The overview will also be posted on our website under the "Schedule" page. Scroll to your city, then click the schedule tab related to that city to view the overview.

How do I view the Judges' critiques and scores?

When you log in, you will be directed to your dashboard. Click the "Upcoming and Past Registration" tab, then locate your regional event and click "Scores." From there, you can see the judges' scores and options to play, download, or share your critiques.

How do I share the Judges' critiques?

Follow the steps mentioned above for viewing judges' critiques and scores. To share, click the share box next to the critiques you want to share, then click the "Share Selected Critiques" tab. You will enter the email address of the person you want to share the critique with. Everyone you share the critique with will receive an email containing a link. They will need to click the link and enter their email address to view the critique.

How can I obtain photos and videos from an event?

We have now gone to a media fee model. On the Wednesday following your event you will be able to head to our website, click the media button and follow the prompts to put your personalized media key into the search bar. All keys are based on the performers name and date of birth. It is the first two intials of the first name, the complete last name and the date of birth as a 6 digit number format. For example: Jane Smith born on March 03 2015 would have a key of - jasmith030315

Will you be livestreaming your events?

Yes, most of our events will be livestreamed. Head to our main page, click "Media," and then "Live Stream." This will take you to our live stream for the weekend. If you are having trouble with the feed, please check your internet speed and device settings.

Can I purchase awards at the show?

Yes, please visit our Driven Talent boutique for all your additional awards needs. As a general rule, we do not ship awards.

Does running for Title exclude me from Overall High Score Awards?

No, you can place in overall and win title for the same routine. Title is an additional award and does not take away the ability to place in the Overall High Score Awards.

Where do parents sign their performers waiver?

Head to www.driventalentcompetition.com, click register, then in the lower right hand corner you will see SmartWaiver, click this and it will take you to the digital waiver.
